1 Document Control

1.1 Scope of this document

This document defines the processes that Fourth and Subscriber will follow to deliver and receive the following Fourth HR & Payroll Solutions (collectively, the "ASO Solutions"):

- ASO Plus
- ASO Basic

Each of the Solutions requires onboarding and implementation services to be conducted by Fourth in partnership with Subscriber. The onboarding and implementation services and associated fees will be defined separately in a Statement of Work, which will be agreed upon by Fourth and Subscriber in association with the applicable order for services (the "Ordering Document").

1.2 Changes to this document

Fourth regularly assesses the ASO Solutions and how the ASO Solutions are provided to Subscribers, and may update these Solution Terms from time to time. Changes may be made (for example) to address regulatory changes, changes in Subscriber needs, or changes to Fourth's business. Fourth may notify Subscriber of changes these Solution Terms by uploading a new version of the Solution Terms to this website www.fourth.com/legal (the "Site"). Fourth recommends that Subscriber check the Site periodically for updates.

2.2 Payroll Services Delivery

2.2.1 Fourth Responsibilities

In conjunction with delivering payroll services to Subscriber, Fourth will perform the following during each payroll processing:

- Data Input & Processing:
 - Process input received from the Subscriber:
 - New hires within 24 business hours of receipt
 - Employee changes within 24 business hours of receipt
 - Payroll returned within 3 business hours for review and approval
 - Calculate pay, associated earnings and deductions from pay (including statutory and voluntary deductions). Calculations will be based solely on instructions and data provided by Subscriber, and all calculations must be verified and approved by Subscriber prior to final payroll being run.

2.2.1.1 Validation

- Perform reasonability check for employees receiving pay that are terminated or on leave
- Review total regular hours per employee. Any regular hours over the standard worked for the pay frequency will be identified and brought to the Subscriber's attention
- Review invoice and compare to prior payroll invoice; bring any concerns to Subscriber
- Check that payroll has been approved, processed and sent for delivery as needed

2.2.1.2 Output

- Creation of Payroll Reports
- Printing, packaging, and delivery of any live employee checks based on agreed upon delivery
- Provide Electronic Pay Stubs via Employee Self Service
- Processing of garnishment payments and responses as required
- Production of General Ledger file (if requested as part of service)

- Submission of ACH files
- Submission of tax payment files and reporting
- Retaining records of standard ACA reports
- Production and distribution of electronic W-2 at the end of the tax year

2.2.2 Payroll Operations - Subscriber Responsibilities

Fourth's obligations to provide the payroll services as described in this document are conditioned on Subscriber fulfilling the following requirements:

- Ensure that all approvals, updates, changes, or other requirements for successful payroll processing are completed by payroll submission deadlines, as defined in the payroll timetable, and meet all other deadlines as advised in the timetable
- Ensure that all data/information provided to Fourth:
 - is accurate and complete;
 - is legible, and duly authorized; and
 - is submitted in accordance with the agreed timetable
- Ensure all employee records have been created and are accurate (including bank account numbers) prior to each payroll deadline
- If the Subscriber is using Electronic Onboarding, ensure all employees have completed the onboarding process and that Subscriber has completed the I-9, Section 2 prior to the payroll deadline
- Ensure all information submitted via the schedules is accurate prior to the payroll deadline
- Ensure that all worksite managers are fully trained to submit payroll data timely and accurately
- Inform Fourth's payroll team when a location is set up or is closed; ensure that all administration records can be updated, including the addition or removal of authorized contacts
- Submit all garnishment notices to Fourth within 48 hours of receipt to ensure setup and deduction from employee in timely manner
- Approve the payroll
- Confirm that the pay date is correct
- Provide details of all new state registrations and/or forward any tax documentation to Fourth within two (2) business days of receipt by Subscriber
- Complete (approve/deny) all employee PTO requests reasonably in advance of the payroll deadline

FOURTH IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR COSTS OR LOSSES RESULTING FROM INCORRECT DATA OR INSTRUCTIONS THAT WERE APPROVED BY SUBSCRIBER.

2.2.3 Duplicate Documents

Employees will have access to self-service and can print/re-print their own pay stubs. If a Subscriber's employee cannot access Subscriber's self-service site, then the Subscriber's payroll team will have access in the HR & Payroll system to re-print a pay stub and or W-2 for that employee.

2.3 Payroll Submission, Timeline and Funding Requirements

2.3.1 Scheduled Payroll Submission

Subscriber is responsible for reporting payroll to Fourth as set forth below:

2.3.1.1 Scheduled Payroll Submission Timeline

Payroll data must be received by no later than noon EST two business days prior to check date for Fourth to calculate and review payroll. Payroll review will be returned for verification and approval two hours after payroll has been submitted to Fourth. Payroll data must be reviewed and approved by Subscriber no later than 4 pm EST two business days prior to check date.

2.3.1.2 Off-Cycle Payroll

Due to state regulations around payment of wages for terminated employees, unscheduled payrolls may be required. Subscriber may also need to process a special payroll for commissions or bonuses. For any off-cycle payroll, Subscribers should contact their assigned Payroll Specialist for assistance.

2.3.1.3 Payroll Approval

All payrolls must go through a payroll approval process. Payrolls that are not approved by Subscriber by the deadline may be delayed. In the event of a delay in Subscriber's approval of payroll, Subscriber should communicate with its Payroll Specialist immediately.

2.3.1.4 Payroll Funding

An invoice for payroll and taxes will be provided with each payroll review and approval. Payroll must be funded for payroll to be proceed. Funding can be done by:

- ACH: If payroll is funded via ACH debit, payroll must be approved for processing by 4 pm EST two business days prior to check date.
- Wire or Reverse Wire: If payroll is funded via Wire or Reverse Wire (Drawdown), payroll will need to be approved by 4 pm EST two business days prior to check date and funded by 2 pm EST one day prior to check date.

2.3.1.5 Insufficient Funds

Subscribers are allowed to incur two NSF occurrences in any calendar year. After the second NSF occurrence the Subscriber will need to provide funds for payroll via Wire or Reverse wire for six (6) months. Subscriber agrees to pay a NSF fee of one hundred ($250) dollars for each NSF occurrence. In the event that a Subscriber that is funding payroll via ACH debit has non-sufficient funds (NSF) available to process payroll, Fourth will not process payroll for the associated pay period and Subscriber agrees to indemnify and hold Fourth harmless for any claim or loss suffered by Subscriber as a result of Fourth not rendering the payroll services.

2.3.1.6 Employee Pay Errors

Subscriber must bring any errors with employees' wages to Fourth's attention as soon as possible. Subscriber's assigned Payroll Specialist will work with Subscriber to determine the best course of action to correct the employees' wages, make applicable deductions, or reverse direct deposit when applicable. However, it will remain Subscriber's responsibility to work with the employee to obtain repayment of any overpayments and to collect any signed forms that may be required by State or Federal regulation. Subscriber acknowledges that direct deposits cannot be reversed after five (5) business days.

2.3.1.7 Employee Maintenance

Fourth Subscribers can administer employee maintenance and new hires within the payroll system. Our cloud-based software allows access to your account 24 hours a day/ 7 days a week. Should you need assistance your dedicated Payroll Specialist or Support Team are available to assist with any questions you may have.

2.3.1.8 Adjusting Closed Quarters or Prior Years

All information, including current and historical payroll information, must be submitted by communicated cut-off dates to avoid risk of tax payment penalties, interest, and or amended returns. Any adjustment submitted after a cut-off date will result in additional cost for amended returns and may be subject to penalty and or interest. Fourth will not be responsible for any penalties or interest due as a result of Subscriber failing to communicate accurate and complete information in a timely manner. Any penalty or interest will be the responsibility of Subscriber unless the penalty or interest was incurred as a direct result of Fourth's error. In the event any amended tax returns are required as a result of Subscriber failing to fulfill its obligations under this paragraph, Subscriber agrees to pay to Fourth an amended tax return preparation fee of $500 per return.

2.4 Payroll Services Support

2.4.1 Subscriber Payroll Contacts

Subscriber should provide:

- a primary contact for all payroll related communications;
- A secondary contact to deal with overall payroll related queries; and
- at least one out-of-hours contact telephone number to be maintained for use in emergencies.

The contact information for both the primary and secondary contact shall include:

- Full name
- Job Title
- Direct telephone number (Subscriber to provide)
- Email address (both parties)
- Out of hours contact number

Fourth will communicate with designated payroll contacts only and contact details should be limited to those contacts. If written authorisation has not been sent to Fourth to authorise a new contact, then any emails or calls will not be accepted as they will remain un-authorised.

2.4.2 Fourth Contacts

Fourth will provide contact information for a Payroll Specialist and for the Payroll Specialist's manager in the same form as the contact information in the section above. Subscriber must not provide Fourth's contact details to any unauthorized contacts, including employees.

2.4.3 Payroll Service Support Inquiries

5 Supplemental Legal Terms

5.1 Affiliates

The ASO Plus and ASO Basic Services may be offered by any affiliate of Fourth Enterprises, LLC, including without limitation Choice Employer Solutions, Inc. (CES). Invoices for the Services may be provided to Subscriber by Fourth or CES.

5.2 Customer Responsibilities and Payment Obligations

Subscriber assumes sole and exclusive responsibility for the consequences of supplying erroneous or late information to Fourth. Where Subscriber contracts for tax filing services, Subscriber shall ensure sufficient good funds to cover Subscriber's tax deposits and other payments are in the account from which Fourth shall make withdrawals, including but not limited to payments to Fourth for its service fee, no later than the day prior to the date the payroll checks are dated, for the applicable payroll. If sufficient good funds to cover Subscriber's tax deposits and payments are not present in the account, Fourth may, at its sole discretion, immediately cease providing Subscriber with tax filing services and/or payroll services, whereupon Subscriber will immediately become responsible for preparation of all payroll checks and for all tax deposits and filings then and thereafter due and related penalties and interest. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Fourth shall have no obligation to make any payment to any governmental authority or to any other person, unless good and negotiable funds are first deposited by Subscriber in the account from which Fourth makes its withdrawals.

Any payments received from Subscriber returned for non-sufficient funds or for any other reason will be charge a one-time fee of:

1st Return = $75

2nd Return = $125

3rd Return = $175*

* Wire payments will be required after 3 returned payments.

A late payment charge of one and one-half percent (1.5%) will be added to all accounts not paid when due. Checks returned unpaid from Subscriber's bank will be subject to the late payment charge plus any additional costs incurred by Fourth. An unpaid balance will also be subject to periodic charge of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per calendar month (or such maximum lesser interest amount if set by applicable law at a lower amount) until paid in full. Fourth reserves the right to, in its sole discretion, to change the payment method and timing by Subscriber, or terminate this Agreement if full payment is not made when due.

Should Fourth be forced to seek reimbursement from Subscriber for any wages, payroll Service Fees, administrative fees, or other monies due and owing Fourth, Subscriber shall further be responsible for any and all costs of collection, including attorney's fees and costs. Fourth may charge additional fees for any re-filings, amendments, or corrections of initial data sent to us.

5.3 Indemnification

Subscriber will, at its sole expense, defend Fourth from and settle any claim, fine, fees, or penalties claimed or levied against Fourth to the extent arising from or relating to its breach of the General Terms and Conditions or these Solution Terms including without limitation Subscriber not providing required information in a complete, accurate, and timely manner, and will indemnify Fourth from all damages, costs, fines, fees, penalties, and attorneys' fees finally awarded and unappealable against Fourth as a result of such Claim, including without limitation any penalties and fines from a government entity for any late, incomplete, incorrect, data including any required refiling or amendments to initial filings.

5.4 Disclaimer

Fourth is not engaged in the practice of law or the provision of legal services. Subscriber is completely and independently responsible for its own legal rights and obligations.

Subscriber understands that Fourth is not in any way acting as an employer, co-employer, joint employer, or as an employment agency with regard to any of Subscriber's employees.
