Employee's Withholding Certificate

▶ Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
 ▶ Give Form W-4 to your employer.
 ▶ Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		▶ Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying widow(er) <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App, and privacy.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld . . . ▶

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2022 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $ _____
	Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ▶ $ _____
Add the amounts above and enter the total here		3	$ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$ _____
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$ _____

Step 5: Sign Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

▶ Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)

▶ Date

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2022 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2021 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2022. You had no federal income tax liability in 2021 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2021 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2022 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2023.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as Additional Medicare Tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2022 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2022 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $25,900 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er), $19,400 if you're head of household, $12,950 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

The policy requires, as a condition of employment and of continued employment, that employees refrain from substance abuse both on and off the job, that can cause the employee to either report to work or be working with the presence of drugs or alcohol in his/her body, at or in excess of quantities defined by Florida Statutes. This Policy prohibits the use, sale, distribution, manufacture or possession of alcohol, drugs or related paraphernalia or being under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs to the extent of possible impairment, defined as having bodily concentrations of metabolites of drugs or alcohol exceeding threshold limits defined by law, while on Company premises, worksites, or while operating Company or customers' vehicles, machinery, or equipment, whether resulting from usage on or off the job, unless prescribed by a licensed physician. The testing performed will analyze a urine specimen for the presence of any of the following substances or a metabolite of the substance:

- 1) Alcohol – Ethyl alcohol as a beverage or a part of a medicine
- 2) Marijuana – Cannabinoids, THC
- 3) Cocaine
- 4) Methadone – Dolophine, Methadose
- 5) Barbiturates – Nembutal, Tuinal, Secanor, etc.
- 6) Amphetamines – Desoxyn, Biphedamine, Dexedrine, etc.
- 7) Methaqualone – Qualudes
- 8) Opiates – Codeine, Percodan, Paregoric, Morphine, etc.

Because of the potentially impairing side effects which could endanger the employee, coworkers or the public, upon being prescribed such medications, employees are encouraged to call Fourth for advice. If warranted, Fourth will assist the employee with job reassignment to less dangerous duties until treatment is completed.

The Company's Medical Review Officer may be consulted for technical information and answers to questions about prescription or over-the-counter medications. Please contact Fourth for further information.

TESTING PROCEDURES:

To facilitate enforcement of this policy, all job applicants are required to take and pass a pre-employment drug test within 30 days immediately prior to start date.

Present employees must be tested for drugs and/or alcohol under reasonable suspicion conditions, including post accident. Florida Rules also require testing following completion of treatment or counseling for drug or alcohol abuse and together with any routine fitness-for-duty medical exams. Random testing is also authorized. Regulated Company drivers, in particular, may be enrolled in random testing programs. Refusal to submit to testing upon request, shall subject the employee to the same disciplinary measures prescribed for positive test results, which may include termination for cause, denial of Unemployment Compensation and loss of Workers Compensation medical and indemnity benefits.

Analysis of specimens will be performed only by licensed, certified laboratories utilizing qualified sites and employing collectors trained to follow authorized collection protocols and properly maintain legal specimen chain-of-custody. An experienced physician / Medical Review Officer (MRO) will review all negative and confirmed positive laboratory reports. Positive results shall only be reported to the Company after the MRO has ascertained that personal prescriptions or other legal substances do not account for the laboratory findings. Investigations may include, as appropriate, telephone contact with the employee or job applicant and any prescribing physicians and/or pharmacies identified. An adulterated test result will be considered to be a positive test result.

REASONABLE SUSPICION:

Employees reporting to work that demonstrate impaired conduct that could be unsafe for job performance may be tested under reasonable suspicion guidelines. If employees become similarly impaired on the job, they may be tested under reasonable suspicion guidelines. Reasonable suspicion testing shall be conducted when there is:

1. Observable phenomena while at work, such as direct observation of drug use or of the physical symptoms or manifestations of being under the influence of the drug.
2. Abnormal conduct or erratic behavior while at work or a significant deterioration in work performance.
3. A report of drug use, provided by a reliable and credible source.
4. Evidence that an individual has tampered with a drug test.
5. Information that an employee has caused, contributed to, or been involved in an accident while at work.
6. Evidence that an employee has used, possessed, sold, solicited, or transferred drugs while working on the Company's premises, work sites, or while operating the Company's / Customer's vehicle, machinery or equipment.

To discourage use and/or distribution of illegal drugs and/or alcoholic beverages in the workplace, upon reasonable suspicion, searches for alcohol, drugs or paraphernalia may be conducted of property or worksites accessible to employees, including, but not limited to vehicles, equipment, tool boxes, lockers, desks, etc. Discovered illegal items will be referred to law enforcement authorities for disposition.

CONSEQUENCE OF POSITIVE TEST OR TEST REFUSAL:

Testing positive for abused substances will eliminate applicants from employment consideration. Applicants who test positive will be ineligible to apply again for a minimum of six (6) months. Furthermore, these applicants may reapply only if all of the following criteria are satisfied:

1. The applicant was not engaged in the sale of drugs to others or engaged in any other criminal activity, such as theft, coincident with said drug and/or alcohol abuse.
2. It was the applicant's first drug test by the Company.
3. Work is available to which the applicant can be assigned at an appropriate pay scale, which in the sole judgment of management, does not, by virtue of the employee's confirmed drug and/or alcohol abuse, endanger the safety of coworkers or the general public, or pose an unreasonable security risk to Company products or property, or require additional supervision to assure required standards of productivity or work quality, at least until such time as the employee is proven by subsequent random testing to no longer be abusing drugs or alcohol.
4. At the applicant's own expense, counseling and/or treatment must be completed and documented to the Company. The Human Resources Director may assist with selecting an appropriate facility or provider.

After a person has been employed by the Company, a one-time exemption from this Policy's disciplinary provisions may be granted if, prior to being notified of being selected for drug or alcohol testing, the employee has voluntarily sought and is progressing satisfactorily in treatment or counseling for drug and/or alcohol abuse. Satisfactory written documentation must be provided to Fourth showing date treatment commenced, expected ending date, and the name/address/telephone number of the provider of the treatment. All employees participating in a substance abuse rehabilitation program will be subject to random testing for a period of two years after the program completion.

APPEAL PROCEDURE FOR POSITIVE TEST RESULTS:

The Company's Medical Review Officer will attempt to contact the employee or job applicant who has a positive confirmed test result within five (5) working days of receiving the positive test result. If an employee's / applicant's explanation or challenge is unsatisfactory, the Medical Review Officer will report a positive test result back to the company. If the Medical Review Officer is unable to contact the employee / applicant within five (5) working days, the Medical Review Officer will report a positive test result back to the company.

Within five (5) working days after receipt of a confirmed positive test result, which has been verified by the MRO, Company management shall inform the employee / applicant of the positive result, the consequences of such results and the options to the employee or job applicant. An employee / applicant may challenge a confirmed positive test result by submitting within five work days an explanation in writing to the Human Resources Director, concerning personal circumstances that may have affected the results and explaining why the result does not constitute a violation of Company policy. The donor of a tested specimen will be responsible for providing all necessary documentation, i.e.; a doctor's report, signed prescription or current prescription container with relevant information and other related supporting documents. Company management will, within 15 days of receipt of the employee's / applicant's written explanation or challenge of positive test results, provide a written statement of acceptance as satisfactorily explained or an explanation to the employee / applicant as to why the employee's / applicant's explanation is unsatisfactory, along with a copy of the positive test results. All such documentation shall be kept confidential by the company and shall be retained by the company for at least one year.

The employee/applicant may, at their own financial expense, have a portion of his/her original specimen retested during a period of 180 days following written notice of a positive test result. When an employee / applicant undertakes a challenge to the result of the test, it shall be the employee's / applicant's responsibility to notify the laboratory and the sample shall be retained until the issue is settled. The employee or applicant is also responsible for notifying the original testing laboratory of an alternate HRS licensed laboratory, for the purpose of transferring, under Chain of Custody, a portion of the employee's or applicant's specimen for retesting.

An employee may undertake an administrative challenge by filing a claim for benefits with a judge of Compensation Claims concerning a workplace injury. Other challenges not involving workplace injuries must challenge a test result in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Job applicants or employees whose drug test results are confirmed positive shall not, by virtue of the result alone, be defined as having a "handicap".

All drug test information, reasonable suspicion reports, or other related information concerning an individual will remain confidential and will not be disclosed except for conditions described in Florida Statutes.

By signing below, the employee / applicant acknowledges having received and understood this Drug Free Workplace Policy. This signature (facsimile thereof) also authorizes all health care providers to release information requested by the MRO to corroborate legal prescription use following a positive drug and/or alcohol test result. I have received, reviewed, understand and agree with the contents of this document.
